BALDWIN PROGRAM FOR ACADEMIC DEVELOPMENT: Provides support to students including help with reading, time management, organization, general learning strategies, and help in specific courses. Drop in hours available.

ESOL – ENGLISH SPEAKERS OF OTHER LANGUAGES: Students who are multi-lingual or who have parents who are non-native speakers of English may work with ESOL Advisor. They may seek help with understanding assignments and reading strategies, grammar, outlining, revising, and editing, and the conventions of scholarly writing.

QUANTITATIVE REASONING PROGRAM: Provides support to students in understanding and using numerical information. Peer tutors provide study groups and some individual tutorials for students in quantitative courses. Drop in tutoring available.

WRITING PROJECT: Students in any discipline work with peer writing assistants to improve their writing process and strengthen their writing. Writing assistants work with students in selected courses, drop-in workshops, and semester partnerships.
